3. Functions, duties and responsibilities of the Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors/Managing Director shall be responsible for –

(i) Setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the Code and Regulations for the preservation of unpublished price sensitive information, approval of trading plan, pre-clearance of trades and monitoring of trades and implementation of this Code.

(ii) Maintaining the record of the Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and incorporate changes from time to time.

(iii) Assisting all employees in addressing any clarifications in the Regulations or this Code.

(iv) Advising all Designated Persons not to trade in securities of the Company when the Trading Window is closed.
(v) Advising all Directors, Promoters, Key managerial personnel and Designated Persons to furnish the details of transactions in the securities of the Company in the prescribed form and to maintain a record of all the intimations received for a period of at least five years.

(vi) Obtaining disclosures from Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and to give information, in respect of the disclosures received, to all the Stock Exchanges where the securities are listed, as applicable.

(vii) Maintaining records of all disclosures and to report the same to the Audit Committee/Board periodically.

4. Protect or preservation of price sensitive information

   (1) All information is to be handled on a need to know basis. It should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty.

   (2) No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a Company or securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

   (3) All manual files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc.

   (4) No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the Company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

   (5) Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:

      - entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company;

      - not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine.

   (6) For purposes of sub-clause (5) above, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of sub-clause (5) above, and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.
5. Restriction on trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information

(1) Save as provided in this Code and the Regulations, no insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

(2) Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information.

(3) They shall, while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information, neither trade in the securities of the Company on the basis of unpublished price sensitive information nor pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for trading in securities of the Company.

6. Entitlement to trade under Trading Plan (“TP”)-

(a) Trading Plans

- Any Designated Person or a person in possession of or having access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (an “Insider”) who is desirous of trading in the securities of the Company, is entitled to formulate a trading plan, and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval in Form I, which shall be accompanied by an undertaking as per Form II. Pursuant to the approval of such TP and public disclosure, trades may be carried out on behalf of such Insider subject to the prescribed conditions.

- The TP shall clearly set out the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at which the trades shall be made:

(b) Any trading Plan shall not entail:

(i) the commencement of trading earlier than six (6) months from the public disclosure of the TP. It is clarified that such six (6) month is merely a cool-off period, and that no immunity shall be granted from the action if the Insider were to be in possession of the same Unpublished Price Sensitive Information both at the time of formulation of the TP and the implementation of the same. In such case, the commencement of trading pursuant to the TP will be deferred until such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information becomes generally available information;

(ii) trading for a period between the twentieth (20th) day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results (i.e. 20 trading days prior to 30th June, 30th September, 31st December, 31st March of every year till the 2nd trading day after the disclosure of financial results);

(iii) trading for market abuse;

(iv) trading for a period less than twelve (12) months;

(v) overlap of any period covered under any existing TP from the same Insider;

(c) The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings that:

- the person is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information; or

- he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences his trades; or such other undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. The Compliance Officer may thereafter approve the plan.

(d) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider will have to mandatorily implement the TP without any deviation there from. However, the implement of the TP shall not commence if the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in the possession of the Insider at the time of formulating the TP has not yet become generally available at the time of implementation, and such implementation shall be deferred till such information becomes generally available.

Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

(e) Once approved, the Compliance Officer shall notify the approved TP to the Stock Exchanges on which the Company’s securities are listed.

7. Execution of trades by Designated Persons

A. Trading Window:

i. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called ‘trading window”, is available for trading in the Company’s securities.

ii. The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed 7 days prior to and during the time the unpublished price sensitive information is published.

iii. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated persons of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

iv. The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight (48) hours after the information becomes generally available.

v. The “Trading Window” shall, inter-alia, remain closed from:

- twenty one days prior to the date of Board Meeting/Committee Meeting for declaration /publication/consideration of the :

  • annual /half yearly /quarterly financial results; or
  • recommendation/declaration of dividend; or
  • change in Capital Structure; or
  • merger, de-merger, acquisition, disposal and expansion of business; or
  • Delisting

- or circulation of agenda, whichever is earlier, until 48 hours after conclusion of the Board Meeting/Committee Meeting for the above said purpose(s).
vi. Other than the period(s) for which the Trading Window is closed as specified hereinabove, the same shall remain open for dealing in the Securities of the Company.

B. Pre Clearance of Trade in Securities:

(i) When the Trading Window is open, the Designated Persons shall apply for pre-clearance to the Compliance Officer if they wish to transact in the Company’s Securities bearing a value exceeding Rupees Ten Lacs Only (INR 10,00,000/-) at Market value. The Pre-clearance threshold of Rupees Ten Lacs Only (INR 10,00,000/-) is applicable on transactions proposed to be carried out in seven (7) trading days. Thus if a Designated Person proposes to buy/sell securities aggregating to Rupees Ten Lacs Only (INR 10,00,000/-) or more, within seven (7) trading days, such person shall seek pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer.

(ii) However, no designated person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade. The pre-dealing procedure shall be hereunder:

- A Designated Person shall make a pre-clearance application to the Compliance Officer in the prescribed format Form I along with an undertaking stating that he/she has not contravened the provision of this Code.

- If any person covered by the Code, obtained any Price Sensitive Information after executing the undertaking but prior to transacting in Securities of the Company, he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer and refrain from dealing in Securities of the Company.

- All the persons covered by the Code shall execute their order within 7 Days of pre clearance of trade. If the transaction is not executed within 7 Days of such clearance, fresh approval of the Compliance Officer is required.

(iii) The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for pre clearance of trades.

C. Contra-trading:

All Designated Persons shall conduct their dealings in the securities of the Company only in the “Valid Trading Window” period and shall not enter into “Contra Trade” i.e. opposite or reverse transactions, in the securities of the Company, for a period not less than six (6) months from the date of obtaining the pre-clearance, be permitted to execute a contra-trade unless a specific approval for an exemption from this rule is obtained from the Compliance Officer. In the event that a contra-trade is executed within such period, inadvertently or in contravention of this provision, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund.

In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his reasons in this regard. The application for the waiver of the minimum period of holding of the securities shall be made by the employee in Form V annexed to this Code.
8. Miscellaneous

The Designated Persons shall not do any of the following:

(i) Make recommendations to anyone to buy/sell the Company’s shares, when such Designated Persons are likely to be in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information;

(ii) React to queries on shareholding patterns, business forecasts, etc. of the Company. Such queries must be relayed to the Compliance Officer;

(iii) Release statements on the financial figures, new business ventures, tie-ups/agreements without the sanction, in writing, of the two (2) duly designated directors; or

(iv) Communicate, consult or procure any Unpublished Price Sensitive information

To summarize, if you, as a Designated Person, wish to trade in the Company’s Securities:

1. Make sure that the trading window is not closed. You cannot trade in the Securities of the Company, irrespective of their value, if the Trading Window is closed.

2. Obtain a pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer, in the prescribed format, if the proposed trade exceeds Rupees Ten Lacs Only (INR 10,00,000/-) within seven (7) trading days.

3. Make sure that you are not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

4. Execute such pre-clearance, once obtained, within seven (7) trading days thereof. The pre-clearance shall lapse on the expiry of such seven (7) trading days, after which a fresh pre-clearance shall be required.

5. do not execute a contra-trade, i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six (6) months following the date of receipt of pre-clearance.

9. Reporting and Disclosure Requirements

i. Initial Disclosure:

(1) Every Promoter, Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) and Director of the Company shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of these regulations taking effect, within 30 days in Form A;

(2) Every person on appointment as a Director or a Key Managerial Personnel (KMP) of the Company or Designated Employee or upon becoming a Promoter shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven (7) days of such appointment or becoming a Promoter in Form B.

ii. Continual Disclosure:

(1) Every promoter, employee and director of the Company shall disclose to the Company in Form C, the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, exceeds the threshold limits as defined herein above i.e. aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. Ten lacs.
(2) The disclosure shall be made within two trading days of:

a. the receipt of intimation of allotment of shares, or
b. the acquisition or sale of shares or voting rights, as the case may be.

iii. Disclosure to be made by the Company to the Stock Exchange(s):

(1) The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, as applicable, within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

(2) In addition to the continual disclosure, the Managing Director at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by Managing Director in order to monitor the compliances with these Regulations and/or Code.

10. Preservation of disclosures

The Compliance officer shall maintain records, of all the disclosures made in the appropriate form given by the designated persons, for a minimum period of five years.

11. Penalty for non-compliance of this Code

(1) Any Promoter, Director, Employee or other connected person, who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities in contravention of this Code, shall be penalized and appropriate action shall be taken against them by the Company after giving reasonable opportunity to them to show-cause. He/ she shall also be subject to disciplinary action, as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors which may include wage freeze, suspension etc.

(2) In addition to the action which may be taken by the Company, the person’s violating the Regulations or this Code shall also be subject to action under SEBI Act. In case of any violation, the Board of Directors shall inform the Board accordingly.

12. Code of Fair Disclosure

A code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information for adhering each of the principles is set out below:

i. Prompt public disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.

ii. Uniform and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure iii. The Company Secretary shall act as Compliance Officer to deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of UPSI.

iv. Prompt dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available

v. Appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.

vi. Ensuring that information shared with analysts and research personnel is not UPSI.

vii. Developing best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.

viii. Handling of all unpublished price sensitive information on a need-to-know basis

16. General

The decision of the Board of Directors with regard to any or all matters relating to this Code shall be final and binding on all concerned. The Board of Directors shall have the power to modify, amend or replace this Code in part or full, as may be thought fit from time to time in their absolute discretion.
