Pursuant to section 48 of the companies Act 2013 and other applicable provisions, if any, since the share capital of company is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to the shares of any class may be varied with the consent in writing of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class. Also, section 55 of the Companies Act – 2013 provides that redeemable preference shares can be issued for a maximum period of 20 years, therefore the company with the approval of preference shareholders intend to extend the redemption period of stated shares for one year from the due date of redemption of preference shares to conserve the resources of company keeping in view the future business plans of the company. Your Board believes that it will be prudent for the company to conserve its financial resources due to commercial expediency and owing to the development and expansion plans.

The Company proposes to extend the redemption period by one year from the due date of redemption preferences shares in the manner below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name of the Preference share Holder</th>
<th>No. of Preference shares</th>
<th>Date of allotment</th>
<th>Original Date for Redemption</th>
<th>Extended Date of Redemption</th>
